PICTURE A WORLD WITHOUT HUNGER ART CONTEST

At the Interfaith Food Pantry and Resource Center, we strive to end hunger and food insecurity
throughout our community and beyond.
How do you "Picture a World Without Hunger"?

Picture a World Without Hunger Art Contest

We encourage all those ages 18 and under to enter. Show us your creativity and what you think a world without hunger and food instability would look like. We will display entries on our social media pages and website throughout the month of October.

See below for contest details.

Contest Age Requirements:

This contest is open to all those age 18 and under

Contest Deadline:

Entries can be submitted through end of day on Thursday, October 31, 2019

How to Enter (on your own or with the assistance of a parent/guardian):

- Focusing on the theme “Picture a World Without Hunger”, use any medium you like (drawing, painting, photography, graphic design, sculpture, etc.) to illustrate what you imagine a world without hunger and food instability would look like.
- Once your piece is completed, take a photo of it, doing your best to get the entire piece in but also making it a clear photo.
- Email the photo of your piece, along with the information below to JMurtha@mcifp.org.
  - Name
  - Age
  - School
  - Cut and Paste the following: I give the Interfaith Food Pantry permission to share the attached photo on their website and social media pages as part of the “Picture a World Without Hunger” art contest.
- Photo Image Requirements:
  - One piece per photo (and only one entry per individual)
  - Image file should not exceed 2MB
  - JPEG or PNG files only
